

First draft of bill text

Council of State

provides independent advice for all bills before introducing them in the parliament

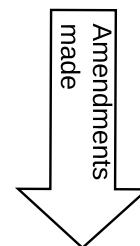

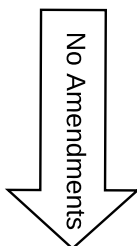

- Will the proposed legislation be effective, efficient and balanced as regards costs and benefits?
- Is the Bill compatible with higher law: the Constitution, treaties (such as the human rights conventions) and European law?
- Does it establish a logical, systematic regime?

Parliamentary committee

appropriate committee prepares the bill for the introduction in the parliament

- examine and express their views on proposals
- separate and regalural investigations on bills
- making amendments to bill text
- final preparation of the bill text before plenary parliamentary session

Final bill text